Noel is used to his unusual family set-up: for years it's just been him, widowed freelance photographer Mum, super-brainy little sister Bauble, and his gay uncles (both called Mike) next door. But when Bauble spots Mum kissing Santa Claus—in August—everything Noel thought he knew about his family is turned upside-down. Though Noel doesn't believe Bauble's theory that their dad's rocking the red-suit look, it does send Noel snowballing into a flurry of mysteries. Who's the unknown 'F' sending Mum romantic postcards? And, even though he's clearly not Santa, might Dad still be alive after all?

What if Bauble was right?
What if Dad wasn't dead, after all?

Just dead famous?

It could be like that bit in Star Wars when Darth Vader tells Luke who he really is:

"I AM YOUR FATHER
(Christmas)."
