A fiery new fantasy series

Introducing
the first title in our
BRAND NEW FOUR-BOOK FANTASY SERIES!

Emba Oak and the Terrible Tomorrows

by Jenny Moore (Cover artwork by David Dean)

All the best stories and adventures start with a knock at the door.

Except Emba Oak's story begins with a mysterious thwump of a dragon's tail at a cave's entrance. And with it comes dangerous truths, riddling prophecies and a plotting sorcerer called Necromalcolm...

PICTURE BOOKS

Step into to the inspirational world of Maverick picture books. With dazzling writing and captivating illustrations, our picture books have won numerous awards and appeared on children's TV.

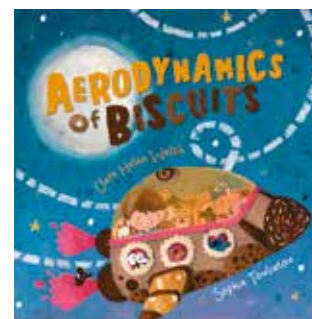

If there's one thing all our titles have in common, it's the ability to entertain. Whether following the tale of a rooster wearing skinny jeans or the true story of a trailblazing woman footballer, there's nothing ordinary about a Maverick story!

"Maverick Arts Publishing are the masters of producing picture books that are all about an entertaining story for young children."
- Book Monster Ally

"...one of the most eye catching picture book titles that we've come across. It really invited us to open the book and we weren't disappointed!"
- Story Snug
(Refers to Rooster Wore Skinny Jeans)

 ISBN: 978-1-84886-678-2 RRP: £6.99

Noel is used to his unusual family set-up: for years it's just been him, widowed freelance photographer Mum, super-brainy little sister Bauble, and his gay uncles (both called Mike) next door. But when Bauble spots Mum kissing Santa Claus—in August—everything Noel thought he knew about his family is turned upside-down. Though Noel doesn't believe Bauble's theory that their dad's rocking the red-suit look, it does send Noel snowballing into a flurry of mysteries. Who's the unknown 'F' sending Mum romantic postcards? And, even though he's clearly not Santa, might Dad still be alive after all?

What if Bauble was right?

What if Dad wasn't dead, after all?

Just dead famous?
